You will find the funeral records of Richard A. Gamble from TN in Republic (MO) Funeral Home Records (Thurman Funeral Home) at the Shepard Room, Greene Co. Public Library. Richard, I believe, was the brother or cousin of Samuel Jackson Gamble of Giles Co., TN, and records for many of his children - except descendants of George Keltner - also are in that book.

GAMBLE
SARAH E.
1864 — 1945
WILLIAM L.

Martha Ann Inman Gamble (May 19, 1816-Oct. 10, 1886)

Martha was likely born in Hickman or Carter Cos., TN, but primarily raised in Giles, where the Inman families were neighbors of William W. Gamble around Dry Creek.

His son, Samuel J. Gamble (May 31, 1815-Sept. 18, 1861), married Martha there and joined the Inman exodus to Greene/Christian Co., probably in late 1852. They settled by 1860 in Wilson Township, Greene Co., where they rented a farm near the current city of Battlefield around the Riggs, Childers, Winn and Moore families. The Gambles were separated by about six miles and the James River from her Inman siblings and mother in Christian Co.

Samuel died just after the Battle of Wilson's Creek, and he is buried in Phillips Cemetery, about a mile north of Battlefield in Greene Co.

During the tumultuous war years, Martha moved her large family southwest of Nixa, where they were living in 1870 next door to her likewise-widowed sister, Nancy Ann Inman Wilson.

But, with new son-in-law George T. Keltner taking over farming duties, the Gambles returned to Greene County in the 1870s. In 1880, the family lived on a farm in Brookline Township, Greene Co. on the rim of the James River Valley. Gambles still live there today.

Martha Ann died there in 1886. Burl McConnell recalls a Cal Gamble owning a farm in the area in the 1950s or 1960s. A recent map shows an A. Gamble as a land owner.

Among the known children of Samuel J. and Martha Ann Inman Gamble, who seemed to marry quite late in life:

Louisa Frances (1840) who was still unmarried and living with her mother in 1880.

William J. (1841), a farmer, married Mary E. ? and moved to Christian County during or after the Civil War from Greene County. They had at least two children, Narcissa (1866) and James F. (1858). This marriage license likely was destroyed in the 1865 Ozark courthouse fire.

Nancy J. (1842), who was still unmarried and living with her mother in 1880. Nancy married W.F. Steele at her mother's home on Sept. 1, 1883 before the Rev. J.C. Baxter.

Martha C. (Aug. 14, 1843-Nov. 2, 1925) married George T. Keltner, son of Absalom (1810-1860) and Margueritte Horn (1809) Keltner, of Christian County. Martha and George wed on Jan. 10, 1869 before JP Columbus J. Faught in Christian County, where both families were living at the time. The Horns and Keltners both had migrated from Giles Co.

Martha and George moved with her mother to Brookline Township, Greene Co. in the 1870s. They had at least five children: Mary F. (1870), Walter S.A. (1872), Everett T. (1875), Martha (1876) and W. Franklin (1879).

Lucinda Ellen (1845), who was still unmarried and living with her mother in 1880.

Samuel J. (1846), who was farming and living with his mother in 1880. He later took over the family farm.

Narcissa Arminta (1847).

James M. (1848) married Mattie Franklin on June 23, 1886 at his mother's home before the Rev. J.J. Cole.

Arena/Irena K. (1850) married William Woods, an Indiana native, before 1874. They lived on a farm close to her mother and George T. Keltner. William and Irena had at least three children: Arthur F. (1874), William C. (1875) and Jack G. 1867).

Frank P. (1852), probably named for his uncle, Francis P. Wilson, who had just married Nancy Ann Inman.

Delphina/Melvina (1854) who was unmarried and living with her mother in 1880.

Mary L. Molly (1856), the only one of the Gamble children born in Missouri, was living with her mother in 1880. She married E.T. Robbins of Wilson Township on Sept. 1, 1889 at her brother Samuel J.'s home before Justice of the Peace J.R. Ferguson.
